Home Health Care 2020: Six Pillars of the Agency Of The Future

What will home health care be like tomorrow? In an industry filled with constant change, what will you and your organization need to do to survive and prosper? This dynamic presentation will help you see the forces and trends that are affecting your future. Stephen Tweed will offer insights and examples from his personal contact with thousands of healthcare executives each year, and he will help you apply these principles to your unique situation.

Objectives: As a result of this program, participants will be able to

1. Describe a brief timeline of home health care in America.
2. Describe the forces and trends shaping the future of home health care
3. Define the Six Pillars of the Home Health AOTF (Agency Of The Future)
4. Describe where agencies need to focus to become an Agency Of The Future
